SCRIP NEWS

SCRIP HINT. The question has been asked "What if I don't have enough dollars on my Casey's gift card to pay for the entire tank of gas? Will I lose the fuel saver savings on the unpaid portion of the tank fill?" The solution is to take your payment in to the cashier BEFORE starting the fill. You will then receive credit for every gallon purchased.

Trick and treat is just around the corner. Have you purchased gift cards for where you will be purchasing your treats? Cold weather will soon be here too. Have you purchased gift cards to buy those scarves, gloves and caps you need this year? AND BLACK FRIDAY will soon be here too. Make a list now of the extra SCRIP cards you will be using.

We need Brunch Workers!!

We still have spots open for volunteers for the CLS Brunch on Oct. 30th. Please get signed up today.

From the Principal's Desk

Is anyone else praying for the end of election season? Instead of waiting patiently for the outcome of the elections, I'm impatiently waiting for the ads, mailings, and phone calls to stop. Many of my friends and family members have discussed with me how awful this election has been. Dirty words, lies, and outrageous behavior flood our nightly news and Facebook feeds. As adults, we hardly have an escape from what is happening and our children are certainly hearing bits and pieces along the way.

It's hard to discuss some of what is happening with our students – most of it is indescribable! How do you talk to your kids about such uncivil behavior?

Well, we can turn lemons into lemonade! However you feel about the unorthodox remarks of our candidates, recent comments have highlighted the issue of respect toward our fellow human beings. This is not a bad lesson for our children! Remind them we are all sinners and Jesus died for us all – man, woman, Republican, Democrat, Christian, or Atheist. If Jesus loved everyone enough to die for them, we can at least show respect to the people that we disagree with. I am reminded of a Sunday School song – “red and yellow, black and white – we are precious in His sight. Jesus loves the little children of the world.” He loves us all, no matter what!
