Family Matters

A CHRIST-CENTERED RESOURCE FOR FAMILIES AND TEACHERS

REAL. PRESENT. GOD. Real Growth

“What do you mean your shoes don’t fit you anymore? I just bought those six weeks ago!”

This is the time in the school year when growth becomes more observable. A teacher may now look eye-to-eye with a young student who was inches shorter last fall. A parent may now observe his child performing math calculations at an advanced level. As spring approaches, there may now be an increased “personal level of interest” toward classmates of the opposite sex.

Growth in our children is expected, and desired, in a timely and natural process. Not only are we interested in their physical growth, but we are also interested in their mental growth, their emotional and social maturation and their spiritual development. When growth doesn’t occur at a natural rate or even on a reasonable parental timetable, we get anxious. We seek out experts for insight and we even look at the things we have done, or perhaps didn’t do, as parents.

God has created a world made for growth. It is part of His plan for sustaining life. It creates a certain order and a natural rhythm that we come to count on as citizens of this planet. But we know that this world is not perfect, and there are times when things don’t work out as we would expect as we experience the process of birth, growth, life and death. It is hard to understand why a baby would have complications after a mother’s uneventful pregnancy. We are confused when a child or teenager contracts diseases that seem more appropriate for an adult. We can even feel cheated when a friend or loved one doesn’t seem to have “lived a full life,” even though they died in their 60s or 70s.

How do we as parents cope with a growth/life cycle that sometimes does not seem to make sense? Here are three things to keep in mind as you and I go through life and as life comes at us:

REALIZE that not everyone, nor every family or every community, will have perfect health and enjoy the process of growth as expected. There will be challenges and setbacks, but these become opportunities for trusting God and supporting one another.

REJOICE in all things! God will work all things together for good! We may not see a “greater good” at the moment, but Jesus will walk with us through every deep valley.

REACH forward and see new possibilities. What we may think is a setback is only a side step from God’s perspective of our lives. Our perspective is only a partial picture of what can be and what is yet to come from our loving God, the Giver of all good things.

Real growth comes in our daily walk with Jesus. It doesn’t happen physically, or mentally, or socially or even financially. It happens as we celebrate the gift of eternal life through the death and resurrection of Jesus. Real growth is living a life, daily sustained by the Holy Spirit, which gives us the assurance of eternal life.

FAMILY LINKS // Activities for families to reinforce Bible truths in the home.

Gather the family together in a comfortable place for study and discussion using the outline below.

OPENING PRAYER

Shared by the family member who has grown the most physically this past year.

OPENER:

"THE TALLEST AND OLDEST GAME"

Position the family in front of a computer/tablet/phone that is connected to the Internet and answer the following — but first, make a guess as a family!

ITEM	FAMILY GUESS	REAL ANSWER
Tallest man in the world	_____	_____
Tallest woman in the world	_____	_____
Tallest President of the United States	_____	_____
Tallest child under 10 years old	_____	_____
Tallest tree in the world	_____	_____
Oldest tree in the world	_____	_____
Oldest turtle/tortoise	_____	_____
Oldest living person in the world	_____	_____

Follow-up Questions:

- › How did your family do on the questions?
- › Was it easy or hard?
- › What did you learn?

FAMILY STUDY TIME

Have someone in your family look up 1 Cor. 3:6-8 and read it out loud for all to hear.

- 1 Does it matter who plants a seed? (no)
- 2 Does it matter who waters the seed? (no)
- 3 What matters? (God, who helps all things to grow)

What are ways in which the family grows in faith? Check the appropriate boxes below that indicate an activity that people in your family do on a regular basis.

- go to church
- attend Sunday School
- go to youth group
- go to adult Bible class
- do service projects
- do personal devotions
- read Bible stories to kids
- have family devotions
- attend a Christian school
- other: _____

What are some ways that people in the family can grow in faith in the future? _____

CLOSING ECHO PRAYER

Have an older sibling or adult read the following prayer, with everyone else in the family repeating the words, phrase by phrase.

Dear Father in Heaven. Thank You for making our world. Thank You for making me. Help us to grow in faith every day. Help us to trust You always, in everything we do and say. In Jesus' Name. Amen.
